Word Study Kindergarten

WORD STUDY
Content Area: Language Arts
Course & Grade Level: English, Grade K
Summary and Rationale
Word study is an important part of Balanced Literacy instruction. It is a developmental approach to the teaching of phonics, spelling, and vocabulary that allows teachers to differentiate instruction based on careful and ongoing assessment of students' strengths and challenges. It teaches students through exposure to the three layers of English orthography: alphabet, patterns, and meaning. Students have opportunities to develop a deeper understanding of how the written word works, and allows them to generalize these understandings as they read and write independently. Bear, Invernizzi, Templeton, and Johnston state: "Becoming fully literate is absolutely dependent on fast, accurate recognition of words in texts, and fast accurate production of words in writing so that readers and writers can focus their attention on making meaning." (Words Their Way, 2004, p. 4)
Recommended Pacing
Students will work in differentiated groups, and receive a new word sort/pattern approximately every 1-2 weeks based on ongoing assessment. Word study instruction may be scheduled as part of reading and/or writing workshop if necessary.
New Jersey Student Learning Standards
Standard RF.K Reading: Foundational Skills
RF.K.1	Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.
RF.K.1.D	Recognize and name all upper- and lower-case letters of the alphabet.
RF.K.2	Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).
RF.K.2.A	Recognize and produce rhyming words.
RF.K.2.C	Blend and segment onsets and rimes of single-syllable spoken words.
RF.K.2.D	Isolate and pronounce the initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in three-phoneme (consonant-vowel-consonant, or CVC) words. ¹ (This does not include CVCs ending with /l/, /r/, or /x/.)
RF.K.2.E	Add or substitute individual sounds (phonemes) in simple, one-syllable words to make new words.
RF.K.3	Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding and encoding words.
RF.K.3.A	Demonstrate basic knowledge of one-to-one letter-sound correspondences by producing many of the most frequently used sounds of each consonant.

RF.K.3.C	Read common high-frequency words and sight words with automaticity.
RF.K.3.D	Distinguish between similarly spelled words by identifying the sounds of the letters that differ (e.g., nap and tap; cat and cot).
Standard L.K Language
L.K.2.C	Write a letter or letters for most consonant and short-vowel sounds (phonemes).
L.K.2.D	Spell simple words phonetically, drawing on knowledge of sound-letter relationships.
L.K.5.A	Sort common objects into categories (e.g., shapes, foods) to gain a sense of the concepts the categories represent.

Instructional Focus
Unit Enduring Understandings
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Readers and writers use all they know about words to figure out how to read, spell, and determine the meaning of unfamiliar words. • Readers and writers recognize, analyze, and generalize patterns related to: sounds associated with letters and letter combinations; spelling patterns; and meaning, use and parts of speech. • Readers and writers use their knowledge of the principles and patterns of words throughout the day and across content areas.
Unit Essential Questions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • How does having an understanding of our language system help us communicate? • How do readers and writers use general knowledge about words (phonics/alphabet, spelling/patterns, and vocabulary/meaning) to increase their knowledge of specific words? • How do readers and writers apply what they know about words as they read and write?

Objectives

Students will know:

- Words have patterns, and those patterns can be used to help them read and write new/unfamiliar words.
- Some words are “oddballs” (e.g., do not fit the pattern) and have to be memorized.
- General knowledge about spelling patterns can be understood and learned through exploration and discussion.

Students will be able to:

- Work at their own level of word knowledge, building on what they already know to learn what they need to know next.
- Recognize, analyze and generalize patterns in their reading and writing across content areas.
- Manipulate and experiment with letters, patterns, and meaning in order to become “word detectives.”
