- Our current social-emotional life skill for the months of November and December is social-awareness.
- Slogan: I acknowledge and show respect for other people's points of view.
- Ask your child about our Question of the Week: Think about getting to know a classmate or student at your school who has different interests than you. Picture how you can make this happen, and then do it
- Here is a link to more information about social awareness for kids as well as some books to check out and read with your child.
