School

We're off to a great start! This week, we welcomed our Hybrid Week 2 students to the building and teachers continued to establish relationships with virtual students through their Google classroom and Zoom platforms. We are proud of everyone's efforts to kick-off the school year and look forward to building positive relationships in all our classroom communities, whether they are in-person or virtual.

Back to School Night appreciation! Thank you to all who were able to attend our virtual Back to School Nights this week. Communication is always a critical part of a positive home/school connection and we appreciate you taking the time to participate. Please do not hesitate to contact your child's teacher should you have any questions.
